

Zandvoort, September 2016

Dear driver/team/sponsor,

The race season comes to an end, maybe by that time you want to thank your sponsors, team members or family for their support this year with an original gift. We offer a calendar with 13 unique photographs of your race season as an unique present. You can compose your own calendar by selecting the photos. Interested? We can make an summary with a selection of your photos from this season. You yourself choose the 13 most beautiful photos and we make the calender. Below we have developed three examples. (Both models full colour are printed on 160 grams quality paper; provided with back paperboard). The calender can be made in most common languages.

Options/conditions: You can stipulate yourself the colour of the text on your calendar (on the examples red is used). Also it is a possibility to place your company or team logo on the calender. For that we count a one-off fee of € 75,-. You get a digital test file for approval. After your approval we start producing the calendar. As from that moment the delivery period is approximately 2 weeks. Postage and packaging within Europe is variable, you are informed in advance of the costs. Pricing is exclusive VAT.

Kind Regards,

Chris Schotanus
